4471 Lower Honoapiilani Road #412

Lahaina, HI 96761

United States

Bars

Maui Brewing Company Brewpub

4405 Honoapiilani Hwy Lahaina, HI 96761

Great Local Brewpub. I've been known to sneak off for a brew or two. They have a pretty good menu. Prices are not sky high. And they have a pretty nice happy hour. It's a very short walk from the condo.

Coffee

Leoda's Kitchen and Pie Shop

820 Olowalu Village Road Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

In Olawalu. Great breakfast and lunch spot on the highway in to Lahaina from Kahului. You drove by it on your way to the condo. It is worth the trip out there. Try the Pork-Pork-Pork sandwich! Amazing pies!

Ululani's Hawaiian Shave Ice

790 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Ululani's is rated for the #1 Shaved Ice place in Lahaina.

Sweet Aloha Baking Company

2580 Kekaa Dr Lahaina, HI 96761

The bakery is about a 30-minute walk north of the condo. Great baked goods. We like to walk there for coffee and sweet rolls. Then walk it off the sticky buns, walking back to the condo. Worth the visit.

Hawaiian Village Coffee

4405 Honoapiilani Highway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Cozy cafe featuring a wide variety of espresso & drip coffees, grab-&-go food items plus free WiFi. I like it better than Starbucks!

Bad Ass Coffee

3636 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Coffeehouse chain serving Hawaiian roasts, including a 100% Kona brew, in a laid-back setting.

China Boat Restaurant

4474 Lower Honoapiilani Road Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Directly across the street from the condo and close!
They say they're the #1 rated Chinese restaurant in Maui.
We actually eat here a lot. Convenient and decent.
We've also eaten at the #2 rated Chinese Restaurant – there's a reason there is no line to get in there... We always do takeout and eat on our Lanai. The restaurant is nice, but our view is better! They do take out and delivery. (808) 669-5089

The Inn at Mama's Fish House

799 Poho Pl Paia, HI 96779

Best Fish House on the island. very spendy, but worth it.
Make sure you book at least two weeks early.

McDonald's

4403 Honoapiilani Hwy Lahaina, HI 96761

For those of you who need your Micky D's fix. We have one just around the corner. We've been known to walk around the corner to get a soft serve ice cream. For something a little different, try the McDonald's Local Hawaii Breakfast. Portuguese Sausage, eggs and rice or, SPAM and Portuguese Sausage, eggs and rice. Believe it or not, it's pretty good.

The Gazebo

5315 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

World famous for their macadamia nut pancakes. This is a breakfast place. There will be a HUGE line! Is it worth it? Only if you like good food! People drive here from all over the island. It's less than a mile away - 5 minutes away by car. Get there early. You should eat here at least once!

Roy's

2290 Kaanapali Parkway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Great service and good food. A must for dinner, especially a romantic one. Love the blackened ahi, macadamia crusted fish, and pineapple upside down cake. You should get reservations.

Aloha Mixed Plate

1285 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

If you've ever been to an L&L in the States or Oahu, this is what it should taste like. A really good sit down mixed plate place. The food is very good and reasonably priced. In Lahaina town behind the Safeway about a 10-minute drive from the condo. Always a wait. Right next door to the Old Hawaiian Luau.

Fish Market Maui

3600 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Near the ABC store. This place always has fresh seafood and knows how to cook it! About ½ mile from the condo near the ABC store on the way towards Lahaina. Plenty of parking. There is occasionally a wood fired pizza food truck with awesome pizza in the parking lot too.

Star Noodle

286 Kupuohi St Lahaina, HI 96761

It's In the industrial area above the Safeway store in Lahaina. Lots of hype about this place. The owner has been on a couple of the Food Network TV shows. We have eaten here a couple of times. It's good, different and there's always a line. Judge for yourself.

Miso Phat Sushi

4310 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

I love the name! Sushi restaurant in Kahana a short 5-minute walk from our condo. Surprisingly very good Sushi. Always seem to have a fresh catch of the day!

Lahaina Grill

127 Lahainaluna Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

You can't go wrong here. Make sure you make reservation eairly.

SURFSIDE Woodfire PIZZA Kitchen LAHAINA Maui

505 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Enjoy brick oven pizzas made from fresh ingredients with a fun flare at Woodfire Pizza Kitchen Surfside. Beyond their delicious pizza, Surfside serves breakfast and lunch too. You'll definitely want to try their waffled breakfast sandwiches, with crowd favorites like the Amped Breakfast Sandwich, featuring roasted red pepper pesto, ham, spinach, tomato and smoked gouda.

Sansei Seafood Restaurant & Sushi Bar

600 Office Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

You'll want to stop by Sansei Seafood Restaurant and Sushi Bar for fresh seafood, saki and more. We suggest that you try their award winning dishes, like the Asian Shrimp Cake and Panko-Crusted Fresh Ahi Sashimi. Yummy

Merriman's Maui

1 Bay Club Pl Lahaina, HI 96761

We love going to Merriman's in Kapalua. They offer an absolutely stunning views, with open-air seating and live music. Their dinner presentation is perfect for a night out on the town.

Pineapple Grill

200 Kapalua Drive Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

The Pineapple Grill at Kapalua is an award-winning restaurant at the Bay Course, offering lunch and dinner. We've been here a time or two. The food is Awesome, but a little spendy. But worth it.

Sea House Restaurant

5900 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Okay, I have to say that this is one of our favorite places to go. The food is fantastic and not over the top expensive. The view is to die for and the service is wonderful. It's kind of a secret spot. But it does get busy. We go there mostly for breakfast. But the Sunsets there are simply amazing.

Burger Shack

1 Ritz Carlton Dr Lahaina, HI 96761

Located oceanfront at D.T. Fleming Beach. The address is misleading. Just go to D.T. Fleming Beach. It's on the beach to the left of the parking lot. Bring your appetite, the burgers are huge!

Taverna Maui

2000 Village Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

High above the Kapalua coastline in Hawaii, on the island of Maui, sits Taverna Restaurant next to the Plantation House Restaurant, a thoroughly modern blend of traditional plantation-style atmosphere, old-fashioned Hawaiian hospitality and the finest in island cuisine. Since opening in the Kapalua Resort area in 1991, The Plantation House Restaurant has earned a reputation among Maui restaurants for serving innovative cuisine in a picturesque setting with breathtaking views. The restaurant is proof that fine dining can indeed blend well with Maui's casual island style. Great for Mother's or Father's day brunch.

The Plantation House

2000 Plantation Club Drive Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

High above the Kapalua coastline in Hawaii, on the island of Maui, sits The Plantation House Restaurant, a thoroughly modern blend of traditional plantation-style atmosphere, old-fashioned Hawaiian hospitality and the finest in island cuisine. Since opening in the Kapalua Resort area in 1991, The Plantation House Restaurant has earned a reputation among Maui restaurants for serving innovative cuisine in a picturesque setting with breathtaking views. The restaurant is proof that fine dining can indeed blend well with Maui's casual island style. Great for Mother's or Father's day brunch.

Monkeypod Kitchen by Merriman - Kaanapali, Maui

2345 Kaanapali Pkwy Lahaina, HI 96761

Monkeypod Kitchen in Ka'anapali is a little on the touristy side. But it offers live music and a great selection of cocktails, craft beer and wine. Their hand tossed pizzas are made with a 3 day crust, so they can support all the delicious toppings that come with. Try their Hamakua Wild Mushroom and Truffle Oil Pizza with white sauce, garlic, parmesan and thyme. They also offer the classics, like cheese burgers, quesadillas and more. It's a fun little hang out.

Duke's Beach House Maui

130 Kai Malina Parkway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Duke's is a very touristy but a ton of fun restaurant to go to. A little story of Duke, He is known as "Hawaii's most famous son", Duke Kahanamoku was an olympian swimmer and the father of modern day surfing. Duke's Beach House Restaurant in Ka'anapali named their restaurant after him for his tremendous Aloha spirit. When you dine at Duke's, you dine at a restaurant that seeks to share the spirit of Aloha with everyone.

Hula Grill

2435 Kaanapali Parkway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

If you want a taste of Hawaiian culture, and beautiful views with a great atmosphere, Hula Grill in Ka'anapali is a must for Maui visitors. Their outdoor patio has one of the best in Ka'anapali and they have live music. It's great Hawaii food and you get a feel of old Maui.

Leilani's on the Beach

2435 Kaanapali Pkwy Lahaina, HI 96761

Leilani's is on the Beach at Ka'anapali beach. They have great food, and awesome views! Their Chilled Seafood Platter is perfect for families and groups, and their Taro Hummus puts a fun island twist on a classic snack. Stop by Leilani's for Aloha hour from 3pm - 5pm and enjoy deals on beer, wine and tropical drinks. One of the things we like about Leilani's, is they only uses locally caught or certified sustainably raised fresh fish, so you know you're getting great quality. They also source their vegetables from local Maui sources whenever possible. Very touristy, but fun. Good for a romantic dinner at sunset.

Honu

1295 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Honu is one of our personal favorite places to dine in Lahaina. Everything on the menu is very good. We love the Chickpeas munchies that come with every meal. Our favorite appetizer is the Ahi Bruschetta. Sooo Good!!! Honu has awesome sunset view and you are literally on the water. We've never been disappointed.

Mala Ocean Tavern

1307 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Mala Ocean Tavern has a beautiful patio that overlooks the ocean, and indoor seating is complemented by large breezy windows for spectacular views. They have a fresh menu that features many traditional mediterranean dishes, like an island twist on the gyro and a hummus platter with babaganoush. Mala Ocean Tavern is great for vegetarians, and those looking for high-quality and organic ingredients. We come here when we can't get into Honu, next door.

Sale Pepe

878 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

The owners La Famiglia Di Bari opened Sale Pepe in Lahaina to celebrate their love of Italian food. This is a fun little place downtown Lahaina. They are open for dinner Monday through Saturday from 5pm to 10pm. Their brick oven pizzas are classic and their pasta dishes are all made with fresh and organic pasta. They have vegetarian and raw options for those who keep special diets.

Kimo's Maui

845 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Kimo's on Front Street in Old Lahaina Town offers a fresh menu with something for the whole family. Yes they are a very very touristy spot. They have good seafood, steaks and grog. Try one of their fruit cocktails. Kimo's offers live entertainment often throughout the week, and they have a separate bar - the Lanai Bar - if you're just interested in grabbing a drink.

Lahaina Yacht Club

835 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Okay, This is a Members only place. BUT if you belong to a Yacht Club you can get into LYC. Just show them your Club Membership Card and sign in. We are members of a Yacht Club or two, So we visit LYC all the time. Here is the "Top Secret Hot Tip" Every Thursday night is Surf & Turf Night. By far the cheapest place on the island to get a great steak and lobster tail. The food is simply amazing. Drinks are also the cheapest on the Island too. BUT... You must make reservations no later than the Tuesday before the Thursday you want to go. They do run out of Lobster. They also have a great Lahaina Yacht Club store by the entrance door.

Pacific'O

505 Front Street Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

This is a very touristy restaurant. But very notable. It's very typical of all the downtown Lahaina restaurants. It's is a really good place to eat. But most people eat here because they don't know other great places to go. but the main reason people continue to come here is for an unforgettable beachfront dining experience. Pacific'O has been celebrating over 25 years of business, Chef Greg Harrison presents a delectable menu of local favorites utilizing a farm-to-table approach.

Paia Fishmarket Front Street Restaurant

632 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

If you want a little local flavor try Paia Fishmarket in Lahaina for a healthy, local treat. Since 1989, Paia Fishmarket has been serving Maui with fresh, delicious seafood, coleslaw and crispy onion rings and fries! This local favorite is as affordable as it is delicious. They offer beer and wine for the adults and a special kids menu with fish sticks for the keiki. The original restaurant is in Paia. We sometimes stop in there on the way to Hana.

Down the Hatch

658 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

When we dine downtown for lunch, the Down the Hatch is a must. Our absolute favorite is the Crab Stuffed Grilled Cheese and Crispy Coconut Shrimp. My mouth is watering just thinking about it. Sidenote: Guy Fieri even stopped by in the summer of 2017 to feature Down the Hatch on Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives! It's a little hard to find because it's not directly on Front Street.

Dollie's Pub & Café

4310 Lower Honoapiilani Road Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

A great little Pub/Cafe, kind of a local hang out. Just a few minute walk from the condo. Everything we've tried was good. When you're not in the mood to cook, just walk over to Dollie's.

Ohana Tacos - Maui

3600 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

kind of a local spot. Ohana has Tacos, burritos & other Mexican eats at a reasonable price. The draw at this simple counter serve with outdoor seating.

The Banyan Tree

1 Ritz Carlton Drive Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

We haven't been here yet, but heard great things about the Banyan Tree. It's refined, open-air hotel eatery offering locally-caught seafood & craft cocktails with ocean views.

Fleetwood's on Front St.

744 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

While I'm not a big fan of Fleetwood Mac, I do kinda like Fleetwood's in Lahaina. Fleetwood's on Front Street has entertainment, dining and fun! They have a General Store with unique items relating to Mick Fleetwood, the drummer for Fleetwood Mac. They serve lunch and dinner and have a very comprehensive bar menu. Check out the Daily Sunset Ceremonies on the rooftop bar, featuring Hawaiian Kumu and Scottish Bagpipers. It was fun but kind of expensive. If you're a Fleetwood Mac Fan, you'll like it. If you're like me... It's a good one time experience.

Koa 156°

839 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Koa 156 has spectacular oceanfront views. Moderately priced menu. Fun place to go if your a couple. Best time of day to go is at sunset. Make reservations early.

Prison Street Pizza

133 Prison Street Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Good ol Jersey Style Pizza Pie! Prison Street Pizza in Lahaina serves up jersey-style pizza, calzones, sub sandwiches and more - all perfected with over 40 years of testing and tasting! Prison Street Pizza brings delicious food to an old plantation-style house that was abandoned for nearly 20 years. They offer dine-in, pickup or carry out, so you can enjoy their comforting food whenever suits you best. This laid back atmosphere offers build your own pies and calzones with a selection of beer to complement your meal.

Pioneer Inn Grill & Bar

658 Wharf Street Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Located in the courtyard of a downtown Lahaina Landmark, The Pioneer Inn Grill & Bar is a treat for locals and visitors alike. The hotel transformed into a Best Western property, but The Pioneer Inn Grill & Bar kept its doors open to keep serving up delicious food. It's a staple place we take people from out of town.

Cool Cat Cafe

658 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Cool Cat's Cafe is a fun blast from the past. Get cozy in a red booth with giant record-shaped tables as you sip on milkshakes. The walls of the cafe are decorated with vintage posters and comics and the floors shine with black and white checkers. Cool Cat's Cafe serves up burgers and patty melts, chili cheese dogs, milkshakes and more. There are veggie burgers available and they have been voted Best Burger on Maui for 13 years. We know it's not what you come to Maui for, but it is a really fun place to go!

 Kid-Friendly

Napili Kai Beach Resort

5900 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Napili Beach: Parking on street at Hale Napili; Napili village general Store; Snorkel Bobs; Beach has very little shade, but great place to stay the day, swim and snorkel (there's one tree for shade!); there's a restaurant for lunch, wonderful horseshoe beach.

Honokohau Bay

HI 96761

Honokohau Bay is a small pretty bay located north of Honolua Bay. The rocky beach and sea floor are not suited for easy swimming or decent snorkeling (although it can be good when the water is calm). During the winter months, the pounding waves make this a great surfing beach, filling up quickly with surfers and locals. There is a small shop serving fresh coconut milk, juices, and other treats, making it a good place to stop and explore. Rocky beach and sand floor Consistent surf during Winter Months Windy in the afternoons Excellent snorkeling and swimming for seasoned swimmers and watermen Not good for small children Local fruit stand and a small shop serving refreshments & snacks No pub

Boss Frog's Snorkel, Bike & Beach Rentals

3636 Lower Honoapiilani Road Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

This is where we like to rent bikes. They have all kinds of diving and snorkel gear to rent too. If you're into surfing, you can rent boards.

Road to Hana

Hana Hwy HI

The legendary road to Hana is only 52 miles from Kahului, however the drive can take anywhere from two to four hours to complete since it's fraught with narrow one-lane bridges, hairpin turns and incredible island views. The Hana Highway (HI-360) has 620 curves and 59 bridges.

Molokini

Hawaii

If you get a chance, you should take a charter to Molokini from the Maalaea Harbor. There are several charter companies to choose from. They all do pretty much the same thing. A sailboat or motorboat will take you out to Molokini Island. You'll be treated to snacks or lunch. Then off to Turtle Bay. The snorkeling is nice. There is a good chance that you get to see turtles on the trip. We like to take visitors on one of the many tours that run out to Molokini. It's a really fun day.

Honoapiilani Park Access Road

Honoapiilani Park Access Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Honoapiilani Beach Park; 100 parking spaces; BBQ; Picnic Tables; Grass; Shade on Beach; swim; snorkel; boardwalk; large sand beach; across from Times Supermarket; Dukes Bar and Grill.

Pohaku Park (S-Turns)

Napili-Honokowai, Hawaii 96761

S- Turns or Pohaku Park; is a short 3 to 5-minute walk from the condo. Public Parking; Porta-Potties; Shade Trees; Grassy areas; Picnic Tables and BBQ; Beach access; spear fishing (regulated); near Kahana. This is our favorite close place to surf. The break is a couple of 100 yards out, but it is a good beginner/intermediate surfing spot.

Airport Beach

65 Kai Ala Dr Lahaina, HI 96761

Airport Beach; down to Times Market, right at the light two lights. Right turn at Westin and go to public parking by the beach. Beach, Shade, Snorkeling, Restrooms, BBQ's, Gazebo.

D.T. Fleming Park

Lower Honoapiilani Road Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Left off main Highway by Kapalua; Lifeguard; full grass and tree park; plenty of public parking; restrooms; huge horseshoe beach for swimming and snorkeling; no road noise; best beach in the USA 2006; Shady lower parking lot; picnic tables; BBQ; Grass lawns and shade; Surfing. Sunny side and shady side to beach. Very close to the Ritz Carlton.

Sheraton Maui Resort & Spa

2605 Kaanapali Parkway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Black Rock Sheraton, snorkel and beach. Go to the Sheraton, Kaanapali down by Whaler's. There are about 12-15 free public spots (first driveway) in underground parking at Sheraton if you get there early in the morning. Otherwise, there is pay parking at Sheraton. Also, you can park at Whaler's if you buy something and get some free time at Whaler's parking. Hula Grill is located there. Fantastic beach. Also, great snorkeling at Black Rock at Sheraton. Mornings are best. Lots of shopping and food.

Honolua Bay Access Trail

Honolua Bay Access Trail Lahaina, HI 96761

Honolua Bay Preserve: Snorkeling. Drive north past Kapalua and you'll see at the curve to the left in the road cars parked. Park and bring your towels and snorkel gear only! Hike down the dirt road through the "primeval forest" to the beach (short hike). This is a rock beach, not really good to stay all day, no restrooms, but the snorkeling is world class! There's a concrete pad to launch off of or to the left, shallow entry into the water. Always swim or snorkel with a buddy. Fantastic coral reefs and fish about 200 yards to the left and the right. Some turtles live there. Great spot for seeing all the fish.

Kapalua Bay Beach

Kapalua, Hawaii 96761

Kapalua Bay by Sea Horse and Napili Kai Park; Beach access public; down stairs under tunnel walk down path. Shade is sparse; Merriman's restaurant (great food and views $$$); shower; swimming; snorkeling; small waves for kids; bathrooms, good drinking fountain.

Oneloa Bay

Kapalua, HI 96761

Oneloa Bay park on Kapalua coastal Trail; about 15 parking spaces, public access to Bay; shower; long path; coastal sand dunes; boardwalk; NO RESTROOMS; sparse shade; surfing; swimming; very private; tide pools

Honolua-Mokuleia Bay Marine Life Conservation District

HI 96761

Honolua-Mokuleia Bay Marine preserves; No facilities; protected preserve; Honolua side is best snorkeling on island. AMAZING and close!

Makena Beach

6600 Makena Rd Kihei, HI 96753

AHIHI SNORKEL/MAKENA BEACH/SHOPS AT WAILEA – THE SOUTH TRIP In early morning, head through Lahaina Town around the Pali and right to Kihei. Bear left to the Piilani Highway and go almost to the end, right turn down to Wailea. Left turn through Wailea, past Makena Beach and all the way down to AHIHI Bay, a small bay on your right. Pass the bay and park on the right. Make sure the water is calm enough to snorkel; listen to the people who are there. There is a concrete pad to enter the water. There are also tide pools. Wear reef shoes or some protection on the lava. Dry off and you can go back to Makena or BIG BEACH on the left. For lunch, try the shops at Wailea.

The Needle

HI 96793

WET SIDE OF THE ISLAND – Iao Valley needle – Paia – Haiku – Windsurfers – Makawao Go thru Lahaina Town around the Pali straight toward the airport. You can go to Wailuku and head up to the left to the Iao Needle and Iao Valley, a lush garden. Great for picnics and there's also a little restaurant up there. Then head down back through Wailuku to Hana Highway and go to Paia, the Hippie town. Lots of great shops and places to eat. Also, gas. Along that road, check out the beaches for the windsurfers who may be out in force at one of the public beaches. You can head up towards Haleakala Crater to Haiku and Makawao (cowboy village) with restaurants, shops, art. Stop at the Komoda Bakery in Makawao.

Jaws

Haiku-Pauwela, Hawaii 96708

Great place to watch the big boys surf.

Mahana Ridge Trail

5855 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Mahana Ridge Trail - This is going to seem strange, but to do this hike you must make a reservation with the Kapalua Adventure Center (808-665-9110) located above the Ritz Carlton. They have a free shuttle and parking area that will take hikers up to the trail head at Maunalei Arboretum. They will also give you a trail map. It is a long hike – about 8 miles and the first mile is uphill – but after that the rest is downhill and the views along the way are amazing. Follow the signs at the trail head for the Honolua Ridge Trail. You hike on this trail until you reach the Mahana Ridge Trail. This hike also goes through DT Fleming Beach. Back to your car.

Pīpiwai Trail

Pipiwai Trail Hana, HI 96713

Pipiwai Trail Hike – If you go to Hana you should consider this hike. It is part of the Haleakala National Park system but you go to Hana to get there. You could go to Hana, the seven sacred Pools and Pipiwai all in one day. Best part about this hike is the HUGE bamboo forest, Banyan trees and the overlooks on the bridges. You'll even get to pretend you're a giant panda in an amazing bamboo forest. The hike is about 4 miles and is easy to moderate. It is a muddy trail as you get higher in elevation. You will be hiking uphill through the forest for just a little while; it levels out after the first part. Make sure to check out the overlooks and side trails along the way. Once past the bamboo

Makamakaole Stream

HI

Makamakaole Stream Hike (13 Crossings) - This hike is difficult to find the start of the trailhead, but worth it. Go about 1.5 miles past mile marker 6 on Hwy 340 outside of Kahului. You have to park your car on the side of the road – there is no parking area. Look for a hole in a fence on the mountain side of the road just before the road takes a sharp bend. Go through the hole and almost immediately begin your first stream crossing. It's called 13 Crossings because you cross the Makamakaole stream 13 times before you reach a waterfall. There are actually two sets of waterfalls... See your Information Letter for more information.

Kealaloloa Ridge

HI 96793

The Maui Windmill Hike runs from a point near Maalaea Harbor over Kealaloloa ridge and down to a long, sandy beach at Ukumehame. Ranging in elevation from 100` to 1,600` Can be difficult, hot and steep. You gain approximately 1600 feet of elevation in 2.5 miles. The trail from either direction winds up steep rocky hills to the Kealaloloa Ridge. This is a feature you can easily spot from much of Maui because this is where the gigantic wind turbines for Kaheawa wind farm are found. This trail is part of an historic around-the-island trail system on Maui that began life as part of King Trail. See Informaion Letter for more information.

Piipiwai Trail

Piipiwai Trail Hana, HI 96713

If you go to Hana you should consider this hike. It is part of the Haleakala National Park system but you go to Hana to get there. You could go to Hana, the Seven Sacred Pools and Piipiwai all in one day. The best part about this hike is the HUGE bamboo forest, Banyan trees and the overlooks on the bridges. The hike is about 4 miles and is easy to moderate. It is a muddy trail as you get higher in elevation. You will be hiking uphill through the forest for just a little while; it levels out after the first part. Make sure to check out the overlooks and side trails along the way. Once past the bamboo forest, you will reach the stream bed leading to Waimoku Falls. See information letter...

Lahaina Banyan Tree

671 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Lahaina Banyan Court Park is a public park located at the corner of Front Street and Canal Street in the town of Lahaina, Hawaii, which was the capital of the Kingdom of Hawaii from 1820 to 1845. Nice place to sit and people watch.

Nakalele Blowhole

Wailuku, Hawaii 96793

There are two trailheads off Highway 30. One goes to the lighthouse and over a ridge down to the coast. The other trail is about 1/2 mile further up the road, just past MP 38. Nakalele Blowhole Trail is a 0.8 mile moderately trafficked out and back trail located near Lahaina, DANGER People have died by being washed off the rocks and sucked into the blowhole. You will see several danger signs. Be very careful, but do enjoy this Awesome sight!

Hana Lava Tube

205 Ulaino Rd Hana, HI 96713

An interesting lava tube where you can explore about 1/3 mile of unusual underground formations. The tour takes about 45 minutes to explore. Costs $12.00. I can neither confirm or deny that I ducked under the railing and did a little extra spelunking. That would be just wrong.... But I hear that it is fun...wink, wink. Easy trail for everyone.

Olowalu Beach

HI 96761

Olowalu Beach is a stretch of bronze soft sand located about 4 miles south of Lahaina just off the Honoapiilani Highway. Olowalu Reef is home to one of Hawaii's unique ocean reef systems, a great place to be when enjoying water activities in Maui such as snorkeling, swimming, scuba diving, fishing, stand-up paddling, kayaking, and much much more. This is one of the top stops for many snorkeling boat tours each day. Get in your car, pack a lunch, beach chairs & umbrella and experience it yourself for much much less.

505 Front St

505 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

If you're looking for a surf spot in West Maui or just a great family beach to catch a sunset, head to Shark Pit at the south end of Lahaina Town near 505 Front Street. Follow the Shoreline Access signs and enjoy a surf lesson, beach day, or a nice walk on the beach. You can watch the Local's surf near the south end of the beach, which may or may not be crowded depending on the day and time. Shark Pit is our pick for the Best Shortboard Spot in Lahaina. Warning, If you surf, respect the locals.

Puunoa Beach

Lahaina, HI 96761

Pu'unoa Beach, also known as Lahaina's Baby Beach, is a great option if you plan on going to the beach with small children in West Maui. Often visited by local families, this beach is perfect if you are looking to float on a floatie and or learn to snorkel.

Wahikuli Wayside Park

Honoapiilani Highway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Located on the side of the Highway across from the Lahaina Post office and Lahaina Civic Center. Wahikuli is a great place to enjoy a beach barbecue with friends and family. A popular hangout for Maui locals, head here for morning snorkeling and swimming before the park fills up.

Hyatt Residence Club Maui, Ka'anapali Beach

180 Nohea Kai Dr Lahaina, HI 96761

Canoe Beach connects to south Ka'anapali Beach sitting on the South side of the Hyatt Regency in Ka'anapali. This beach is well known as the launch spot for outrigger canoes and has great swimming but poor visibility for snorkeling. Park it in your beach chair or take a stroll down Ka'anapali boardwalk north towards whalers village. The beach parks tend to be overly crowded on weekends with families especially during regatta (outrigger canoe season). Sandy beach

Honokowai Beach Park

Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Great beach park for the families!! Swimming is restricted to a shallow pool situated between rocky ledges of reef. Beyond the shallow pool and rocky reef provides awesome snorkeling. The park is perfect for a beach picnic, with the many convenient take-out places near the park.

Lahaina Pali Trail

Lahaina Pali Trail - eastern half Wailuku, HI 96793

The Lahaina Pali Trail in Maui is a very challenging hike, but those brave enough to tackle this adventure will be rewarded with beautiful views. This is an out-and-back hike, and many choose to hike only one way (using a drop car or transportation services to get back to their starting point). Length: 5-10 miles Elevation Gain: ~1,600 ft Level: Difficult Dogs allowed on leash Warning... When Parking, Make sure to keep your valuables out of sight or take them with you. Car prowling is a problem here.

Village Walking Trail

Village Walking Trail Kapalua, HI 96761

The Village Walking Trails in Maui offer six different trail options and combinations to choose from, each with varying levels of difficulty. The trails can be accessed from the Kapalua Village Center from 7 a.m. to sunset daily.

Hanakao'o Park

2501 Honoapiilani Hwy Wailuku, HI 96793

The Ka'anapali Trail in Maui is the perfect option for families with young children, parents with strollers and those looking to take a jog sans-sand. This paved 4.4 mile out-and-back trail has relatively little elevation gain (just under 500 ft) and follows the coast, offering beautiful ocean views. You can take a break from the trail any time you'd like to stop off for a drink or meal at the various establishments lining the trail. Ka'anapali Trail begins at Hanakao'o Beach Park and heads North, ending at the Duke's Beachhouse Restaurant at the Honua Kai Resort. You'll pass Ka'anapali's finest resorts such as The Whaler, Maui Ka'anapali Villas, Honua Kai Resort, and The Mahana. The best

Punalau Beach

615 Honoapiilani Highway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Punalau Beach... AKA Windmills Beach is north of Honolua Bay, very private and off the beaten path. The beach is very exposed to all wind and swells at this due north-facing set of reefs. Long lefts and a couple of right breaks pound the rocky shoreline. Locals and advanced surfers flock to this spot to enjoy the noncrowded waters. Great sunbathing, seashell hunting and or gazing at the surf. Locals ask to be respectful of the road, aina (land), and the beach. Golden-white, rocky/sandy beach Windy in the afternoons Good surfing for advanced surfers Perfect to sunbathe with a book or seashell hunting Not good for swimming, snorkeling, or scuba diving when rough No easily accessible- does re

Mokuleia Bay

Lahaina, HI 96761

Mokulei'ia Bay or better known to the locals as Slaughterhouse Beach. The name "Slaughterhouse Beach" comes from the Honolua Ranch slaughterhouse and tanning/storage shed that was (conveniently) located on the cliff's edge above the ocean. The ranch was torn down in the 60's and what remains is the beautiful protected sandy beach along with its nickname "Slaughterhouse". Mokulei'ia Bay is part of the same preserve as its neighbor Honolua Bay: the Honolua Mokule'ia Bay Marine Life Conservation District. Slaughterhouse Beach shares the beauty that Honolua Bay captures but includes a sandy beach. There are concrete stairs with a railing that will take you from the street parking down to the s

Napili Bay Beach Trail

Lahaina, HI 96761

Napili Bay

HI 96761

Another well-protected beach that is perfect for snorkeling, swimming and body surfing. This is one of the most popular beaches for these activities on Maui's West shore. Beautiful white sand in this bay allows for viewing to the bottom on calmer days. View tropical fish, sea turtles, and the occasional Monk Seal here while palm trees sway and waves brush the shoreline; now this is paradise! The beach is off Highway 30 about 9 miles north of Lahaina. Shimmering blue water Ocean bottom is sand but deep Strong shore break during the winter months Great snorkeling, sunbathing, bodysurfing, and surfing No public restrooms, No lifeguard Convenience stores, restaurants, and snack bars within wa

Costco Wholesale

540 Haleakala Hwy Kahului, HI 96732

Costco is a must stop. Just outside the airport and on the way to Lahaina. Everything you expect from Costco at Mainland prices.

Groceries

Farmers Market Maui

3636 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Fun local Farmer's Market. Great fresh fruits and veggies, lots of local baked goods. We walk there often for coffee and sticky buns.

Whalers General Store

4405 Honoapiilani Highway Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

They have a little of everything. Whalers is only a short walk. We go here when we don't want to drive into town. The store is a little on the touristy side. Prices are a little on the high side, but they have all the essentials.

ATM (ABC Stores)

3511 Lower Honoapiilani Rd Lahaina, HI 96761

Across from the Fish Market near Kaanapali. I think Wednesday is their prime rib special. Don't judge. Where else are you going to find a prime rib meal in Maui for $10 bucks?

Island Grocery Depot

58 Kupuohi St Lahaina, HI 96761

Kind of like a local Costco, but on a smaller scale. Every thing you could need. So if you don't stop at Costco by the airport, this is the second best place to go in my book.

Arts and Entertainment

Theatre Theatre Maui

505 Front St Lahaina, HI 96761

Step into a world of entertainment at Maui Theatre in Lahaina! Maui Theatre in Lahaina is home to the award winning "Ulalena, Burn'n Love and Fourever Fab!" and offers entertainment and dining options all in one. Kaanapali Golf Course

2290 Kaanapali Pkwy Lahaina, HI 96761

The Royal Ka'anapali Course is a Par 71 that stretches to 6700 yards from the championship tees. The course was opened in 1962 and is one of only two Robert Trent Jones Sr designed courses in all of Hawaii. The signature hole is the beautiful 5th that takes you directly down to Ka'anapali and Black Rock Beach. (You will be so close to the ocean you can go swimming!) Robert Trent Jones Sr took advantage of the rolling landscape to create gently sloping fairways and large contoured greens to ensure a challenging approach to each hole. You will have views of the two neighboring islands (Molokai and Lanai) from almost every hole on the course. The Royal Ka'anapali Course begins at sea level

Kapalua Golf - The Bay Course

300 Kapalua Drive Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Kapalua Bay Course The Bay Course opened in 1975 and in that time has hosted over 20 major professional tournaments - the most of any neighbor island course in the state of Hawaii. From the first live prime-time televised event in golf at the 1983 Kapalua International to the Kapalua LPGA classic some 25 years later, The Bay Course has consistently faced the best players in golf and withstood the test of time and technology. 300 Kapalua Drive, Lahaina, HI 96761 (808) 669-8044 More Info: <http://www.golfatkapalua.com/bay-course.html>

Kapalua Golf - The Plantation Course

2000 Plantation Club Drive Lahaina, Hawaii 96761

Kapalua Plantation Course Consistently ranked as the #1 golf course in Hawaii, playing The Plantation Course is sure to be on every golfer's bucket list. Designed by Ben Crenshaw and Bill Coore, the course was designed on a grand scale in keeping with its location on the slopes of the West Maui Mountains and offers dramatic ocean views from virtually every hole. Its lengthy 7,411 yard par 73 layout challenges the pros but it's wide fairways and generous greens make it very playable for the average golfer.
